GREAT DAY

Do you breathe out a name
When you get laid
I'll curse your name
Every single day
A fool for thinking you wouldn't be you

It's a great day - It's a great day
Waking up from wasting my time - It's a great day

When a follower tries to take lead
No one listens to someone they don't need
Yet know there are secrets in us all

It's a great day - It's a great day
Waking up from wasting my time - It's a great day

The sea was blue – I went to dive in
While in mid air – It turned to quicksand – where was your hand

RED'S THE COLOR

It was harsh and I meant harm
I didn't say it to you
Red's the color I see
I didn't say it to you

Would I call this love
I don't know
But I do - But I do love you

You said things that would hurt deep
You didn't say it to me
Red's the color you saw
You didn't say it to me

Next thing then we're throwing stones
To anything that's not our home
When it's dark it's all out there to fear
But I really do love you my dear

ROAD TO US

You know I like your face
And it's all the rage for you
The smile is quite warm
Until your shirt is torn and I run
Cause you're so dark
When you're blue
I'll make a better shirt for you

When you say that you love me
D'you mean what you said
You're miles above me with those thorns in your head
Would you like to go with me
Down the road to us

I really like your nose
And all the other holes in you
Your sing just like a bird
Until you use those words that hurt
Cause you're so dark
When you're blue
I'll find some better words for you

Words that fill my heart – When you say that you love me
Then I fall apart – Cause you said that you loved me

WHO ARE YOU FOR

Unlock your locks
Open your doors
Tune out second hand loudness
Who are you for

Oppose the posed
If felt the need
Decipher your real fears
Who are you for

Who are you for

Unblock your blocks
Open your pores
Tune out Tune in
Who are you for

Who are you for

IT = LOVE

Once you have IT
Please don't lose IT
Once you lose IT
You won't have IT
If you don't have IT
You will want IT
And the key IT= Love

Don't look away – not now
The game will change (for the worse)
Cause you looked away

(second verse)

Don't go away – not now
My days have changed
'cause you went away

Don't go away – not now
My days will change
When you go away

I know for it came to be
It happened to me
All my life within my search
A journey to be free
I'm almost there
I'm almost there
Then I lose it
The I end up right back here

ALIEN INTERVIEW / BEHIND GLASS

I landed here only after 4 months of a dreadful rain
A hot mid August day when I crashed on this earth
Here I stayed

And on the outside is where I stay
To see the inside day to day

There seems to be an over flux of insecurities
A familiar feeling and I know of several of these

And on the outside is where I stay
To see the inside day to day
It's not only the earth that gets this way
But among the worst I'd have to say

Standing behind glass
Protects us from being exposed
Forbids us from being exposed

FANTASY

Fantasy – It came to me
A pleasure dream of love and hope
That's leaving me
Leaving me to find my own soul is leading me

I can only be without you
I can only feel without you
I can only love without you
I am only me without you

Then there's she – who came to be
A word of trust and honesty
That's leaving me
Leaving me to find my own soul is leading me

I can only be without you
I can only feel without you
I can only love without you
I am only me without you

Feeling freedom – Leaving grieving – Tether breaking

ON OUR WAY

Close is the moon
Fiery's the sun
Let's go to Mars

We'll take our hands
I'll take you to where we'll be safe
Off of this ruin

We've been here a long time
The word of Love has become something different – closer to a lie

It's time to say – we're on our way
To happiness – but not today

You are a ghost
I am not here
I went to Mars

I took your hand
It disappeared within my grip
Upon this ruin

We've been here a long time

It's time to say – we're on our way

KITE TREE

The Kite tree pulls its roots
And hovers all over the land
It grows to 20 feet
And catches the wind when it can

You will feel the joy
When it floats by
The sweetness of its bough
Will make you cry

The kite tree invites you and
Everyone to come along
Colors vibrate from the leaves
One by one

Its beauty and free living has brought fear
To the parents of the missing
But the Kite Tree doesn't care

The kite tree dares you and a soul to come along
Where it places you is yet to be known

SUNNY DAY

And I hear there's something at the wall
That separated us from our all
And my need goes to comfort you
We'll keep us one – Just us two

Sunny day – reflections that smile and say
Hello Love – and will you lay alone with me

There will be a time when a monster calls
It's not after you – do not fall for it
And if you try to make a fool
Of the monster it will shy away to...

Sunny day – reflections that smile and say
Hello Love – and will you lay alone with me
